LETTERS FROM THE CAPITAL

SALEM [illegible] 1868

IN THE HOUSE

In the House this morning Mr Chapman offered a resolution reciting that the House is without a quorum in consequence of the resignation of several members that several important bills are yet pending and must fail and that the Legislature will in view of these facts meet and adjourn from time to time till special elections be held to fill the vacancies and a quorum be thereby formed for the transaction of business The resolution does not in direct terms ask [illegible] the Governor to call special elections but [illegible] that the House will [illegible] will [illegible] o clock P M [illegible] The House waited till three o clock P M [illegible] any communication from the Governor it took a recess till seven o clock The day was mostly spent in meditation, with an occasional call of the House It reminded me of the blubbering boy who went to town with his father and got lost in the labyrinth of streets The juvenile individual mentioned went running hither and thither munching his hunk of gingerbread and occasionally bawling out with a sudden jerk of grief Dad! Dad! Where are yer yer derned old fool? I told yer yer d lose me!

At the evening session Mr Winston asked leave of absence which was refused—several members objecting Cox got on the rampage and freed his mind concerning the revolutionary [illegible] of the resigned members till brought down with a bang by the Speaker s gavel The House immediately adjourned

IN THE SENATE—INSANE ASYLUM BILL

On motion of Mr Hendershott a committee of three was appointed to wait on the Governor and learn what he intended to do in relation to returning the bill to provide for the erection of the insane asylum A resolution of the evening before had requested him to return it "for correct enrollment " but the real purpose of the Senate was to squelch the bill and thus defeat the beginning of the building Senators made no secret of this purpose nor of their hostility to ever erecting any buildings at Salem The Governor had no notice of this for he had gone home before the resolution was offered and had approved the bill before he knew of any such intended action When the committee—Messrs Hendershott, Stout and Cornelius—called on him that morning he informed them of the facts in the case and promised that he would send in a written communication The Senate remained a some time in session this afternoon awaiting the message but finally took a recess till 7 o clock without having received it It will be sent in probably early to morrow I have no intimation of what the Governor may do though the inference from his proposition to send a message concerning it, is natural, that he will decline to return the bill It was properly signed by the presiding officers of the two houses and if there were any errors in the enrollment the Governor could not have known it Had it not been the well known intention of the Senate to destroy the bill I presume the action of the Governor would have been the same, as the bill by its terms and by virtue of constitutional provision had become a law the moment his signature was attached and he could no more abrogate it than if his signature was six months instead of twelve hours old

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

Mr Herman rose and explained that the journal shows he voted aye on the motion yesterday to reconsider the resolution for adjournment sine die whereas he had intended to vote against the reconsideration He wished it understood that he voted under a misapprehension of the question he was opposed to the reconsideration

SLOUGH DENIED TO SUCKER CREEK

Mr Ford from the committee to whom was referred the bill to appropriate funds for a steamboat canal connecting the Tualatin river and Sucker Lake, reported it back without recommendation, and the bill and report were laid upon the table The remainder of the afternoon was spent in making calls of the House and dispensing with calls

BOARD OF VISITING PHYSICIANS

The bill to provide for a Board of Visiting Physicians for the Insane Asylum was laid on the table yesterday and that was supposed to be the end of it but this afternoon it was taken up and passed In the present disorganized state of the House, however it cannot receive the signature of the speaker and the passage of the bill by Democratic votes will serve only to show how [illegible] they are to provide against unnecessary expense The bill provides that either of the Board of three physicians may visit the Asylum at only [illegible] whenever he may think it necessary If the bill were enacted into a law these physicians have it in their power to save the State finances at the rate of $30 per day This is Democratic economy

THE SENATE WILL CO OPERATE

A certified copy was received of the resolution adopted this morning by the House proposing to meet and adjourn from time till such time as the vacancies in the House shall be filled by special election On motion of Mr Stout the Clerk was directed to notify the House that the Senate will co operate

BAULKED

Mr Cochran moved to reconsider the vote by which the bill relating to the distribution of the school fund in Grant county was lost The motion prevailed when the President stated the question to be on the passage of the bill and directed the Clerk to call the roll Mr Cornelius [illegible] is generally wide awake asked if the bill was in possession of the Senate The President replied that he believed not that in fact it had been sent back to the House Of course there [illegible] be no further proceedings on that [illegible] Mr Stout moved that the House be requested to send the bill back which prevailed but a message was subsequently received from the House to the effect that being without a quorum it could not transact business and therefore declined to return the bill

EVENING

Both Houses took a recess till 7 P M when both convened The Senate immediately adjourned but the House sat for an hour or so in close meeting and then adjourned till to morrow morning Chapman, Gray and others said the House was in process of organizing again with a quorum The plan as stated to me by a Democrat, is to send for Brumlebner [illegible] has not been [illegible] White of Jackson [illegible] of Marion Grant [illegible] Jackson of Washington—all of whom had gone home before the [illegible] took place and to [illegible] the [illegible] from Clackamas There are twenty five members here Add to these the above six and they will have only thirty [illegible]—still one short of a quorum How they are to organize in this manner is a problem [illegible] the Democrats have a short cut for its solution We shall see

CALL ME PET NAMES

In the course of some general remarks in reply to Mr Cochran Mr Cornelius spoke of the other branch as the Rump House whereupon Mr Cochran became [illegible] and [illegible] at the application [illegible] Cornelius The latter gentleman began a rejoinder when Mr Cochran [illegible] and the [illegible] It was suggested that as the Democrats invented the name it ought not to be taken as offensive when sent home to roost

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER.

FROM OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENT.

WASHINGTON Saturday, Oct 10 1868

POLITICAL MATTERS

Notices in New York papers show that thirty seven Republican meetings were held in that State yesterday twenty six to day, twenty three will be held next Monday eighteen on Tuesday, twenty three on Wednesday, and thirteen on Thursday making one hundred and forty in six days The same spirit prevails in all the other States The telegraph will soon give you the welcome news of a grand Republican triumph in at least twenty five States of this Union, and the election of Grant and Colfax by a very large majority If the Democrats carry Pennsylvania next Tuesday through the immense frauds which they have been committing in the Supreme Court, by naturalizing 6 000 illegal voters in Philadelphia they will not then have over eight States at the outside leaving Grant and Colfax twenty five but if they lose the Keystone State, as I see now they will they will not carry over five or six States, and perhaps not more than three out of thirty three

NATURALIZATION IN PENNSYLVANIA

The Democrats are making great efforts to carry Pennsylvania by naturalizing foreigners Judge Reade, of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania states that by a careful examination of the records he finds that Judge Sharswood, another member of the Supreme Court, elected last year by fraudulent votes has during the month of September in the Court of Nisi Prius naturalized 6 018 persons of whom 2 872 were naturalized during the last week in the month Judge Reade has written a letter in which he speaks for himself Judge Agnew and Judge Williams and says "We all three regard the practice of naturalization pursued in the Nisi Prius as contrary to the plain words of the acts of Congress, and therefore illegal Judge Reade adds This will be the opinion of a majority of the Judges of the Supreme Court whenever Judge Williams takes the oath of office The Court will meet at Pittsburg a few days after the election and will decide that these votes are illegal if the case is brought before them Several witnesses have testified that they were paid by Democratic politicians from $1 to $5 per head for vouching for men whom they had never seen. One man testified that he had sworn more than fifty aliens through the Supreme Court Of all those naturalized, it appears that but few have any legal right to vote

THE CONNECTICUT ELECTION

The election in Connecticut last Monday for town officers resulted in the election of a large majority of Republicans and in large Republican gains throughout the State especially in eastern Connecticut The State is now considered good for 2 0[illegible] for Grant and Colfax

THE CAMILLA MASSACRE

Gen Sibley s report transmitting the results of the investigations by Capt Mills into the causes of the Camilla riot, was received by Secretary Schofield day before yesterday and is published this morning It is the same report which Copperhead journals said Gen Howard refused to give to the public because it placed the responsibility of the bloody tragedy on the Radicals The sworn testimony of the report shows that this charge was utterly false, and it contains the reports of the Republican [illegible] papers that it was a fiendish and unprovoked massacre of the colored people by the Democracy

COMMISSIONER OF INTERNAL REVENUE

The Internal Revenue imbroglio has finally terminated [illegible] the charges which Buckley and the Copperheads concocted against Commissioner Rollins They could not establish any of the charges which they had preferred against the Commissioner and hence the whole proceedings had to be abandoned to the great disappointment of the hungry Copperheads Twenty four of the twenty five Supervisors of Internal Revenue under the new law are yet to be appointed Secretary McCulloch refusing to confirm Mr Rollins appointments because they are Republicans

ARMY MATTERS

The official army register for 1868 just published shows that there are [illegible] officers in the [illegible] United States During the year ending [illegible] January last 31 officers resigned [illegible] were vacated by new appointments [illegible] 5 were cancelled [illegible] were revoked [illegible] thirty seven were [illegible] mustered out eight were cashiered [illegible] one was mustered [illegible] honorably mustered [illegible] Gen L A Hitchcock [illegible]

THE CAMPAIGN IN INDIANA

The canvass in Indiana has been the most brilliant ever [illegible] during the past week and better greet [illegible] where with unabated enthusiasm It is believed that the vote next Tuesday will be the largest ever polled in the State and the Republicans confident of having a good majority after giving the Copperheads 15 000 Kentucky rebel votes

THE TRUE INTEREST OF OREGON

In every point of view the interests of Oregon will be promoted by voting for Grant and Colfax They will be the President and Vice President of the United States for four years they have been in our State they understand our wants and are ready and willing to assist in adopting measures for the development of the great resources of the country Oregon supported Mr Colfax in 1864 at Baltimore and again in 1868 at Chicago, for Vice President of the United States for which he feels sincerely grateful No other public man on this side of the continent feels so deep an interest in Oregon as Schuyler Colfax and it may be truthfully added that he never forgets his friends On the other hand Seymour and Blair know nothing about Oregon care nothing about her people, having been opposed in convention by the delegates from that State They will not receive even a respectable minority of the electoral votes, and will have no influence in the Government. To vote for them would not only be throwing away the vote of the State but it would be repudiating Grant and Colfax, who will not only be willing but will have the power to advance and build up the interests of Oregon K

The Republican Committee's Appeal to the People

The address of the Republican National Committee is an excellent and timely appeal to the people to secure peace to the country and preserve its honor by defeating that turbulent and treacherous organization which started out in the campaign with an open avowal of its revolutionary designs but which now seeks to deny its purposes and change the aspects of the canvass. In this address the nature of the struggle and the duplicity and treachery of the Democratic party are clearly set forth. All know that the Democrats never denied until beaten at the polls that their purpose was a revolutionary one. And can their denial, coming at this late hour, change their purpose? It is folly to suppose it. Their platform is a revolutionary one and contemplates the violent overthrow of the Constitution and laws; its chief architect was a rebel General, and the candidates who stand upon it have declared that it fully meets their views and that, if elected, they will enforce it. No artifice can explain these odious facts away.

The arguments of the campaign are now closed and nothing is left but to urge upon all who desire to preserve the peace and maintain the honor of the country, to exert themselves to bring out every vote which they can obtain. In the present condition of affairs in this State, with the Democratic party entirely apathetic and conscious that their candidates have no chance of election, the task of redeeming Oregon is by no means hopeless. If our friends will only get out their entire vote and labor with zeal and vigilance to prevent illegal voting on the part of their opponents, Oregon may be reclaimed. Let there be a general effort throughout the State. Let the Republicans in every county and town do their duty. Let us have a general rally, and three times three for Grant and Colfax and victory in Oregon!

The Late Elections

The largest vote ever thrown in Ohio prior to the election which took place on the 13th inst., was that thrown in the election for Governor in 1867. On that occasion the vote stood Hayes, Rep., 243,605, Thurman, Dem., 240,622. Total vote, 484,227. The Democrats claimed that this vote was a test of the strength of the parties at that time, and were confident that the next trial would give them Ohio by a large majority. The official result of the next contest to which Democrats looked forward with so much confidence is now known. The total vote of the State is 516,750, and the Republican majority is 17,312. The vote is therefore divided as follows: Republican, 267,031, Democratic, 249,719. The increase of the total vote over the largest previous vote—that of last year—is 32,523. On their last year's vote the Republicans gain 23,426, while the Democrats gain on their vote but 9,097. This sufficiently indicates that the popular current is largely in favor of the Republicans. As yet we have no statement of the entire vote in Pennsylvania and Indiana, but we predict that the statement when it comes will show that the Republican vote of both States is largely increased over that of any previous year. Our majority in Pennsylvania is cut down somewhat by the immense frauds in Philadelphia, and in Indiana we were nearly overwhelmed by the Kentucky Ku Klux. The Republican National Committee well observes that the Democratic party has attempted win in this contest by perpetrating frauds on a gigantic scale. It is perfectly clear that there has been no change of sentiment among the people. The only hope which the Democracy have ever had of winning was by manufacturing spurious votes and by colonizing rebel carpetbaggers in the North to defeat the will of the sober, honest, loyal people of the country.

Democratic Advices.—The following rose-colored Democratic intelligence came in our dispatches last night. We give it as a crumb of comfort to feed the hungry souls of the Confederate Lost Cause Seymourners in Oregon:

San Francisco Oct. 29.—A collision occurred here last night between a body of Democrats and Freedom's Defenders. Three shots were fired and three or four badly wounded, all Radicals. No further troubles will ensue. Seymour addressed an immense audience last night at Pittsburg. Political sky brighter for Democracy. Democrats are offering bets freely.

By this dispatch it appears that a party of Ku Klux Democrats in San Francisco boldly fired into a Republican meeting, and wounded three persons—"all Radicals," of course. So Grant will have three votes less in San Francisco by this valorous achievement. "Rah for Seymour!" the rioters' candidate. No wonder the "political sky grows brighter for the Democracy." As for Seymour's effort at Pittsburg, and its probable effect, it is sufficient to say that that city gave 9,000 Republican majority on the 13th inst., and is expected to do 1,000 better next Tuesday. The remark about "Democrats offering bets freely" is of course all gammon unless the bets are offered on some particular locality. We have heard this week of enthusiastic Democrats in this city offering to bet largely on Soro in the Forks of the Santiam.

A New Dodge.—A lot of rebels in New Orleans and other Southern cities, claiming to be Irishmen, have published an address to their countrymen (?) in the North, urging them to vote for Seymour and Blair, because it is alleged that the "Radicals" have disfranchised the Irishmen of the South and given the ballot to the negroes. This is a new, but a very shallow, rebel dodge. Of course no Irishman is disfranchised in the South unless he comes within the class disfranchised for rebellion by the constitutional amendment, and if any persons of Irish nativity are among that class, we know no reason why they should not be disfranchised as well as native Americans. If an Irishman comes to this country and joins in a rebellion against it, there would seem to be no very valid reason why he should not receive the same punishment which our own people receive for the same crime. But in point of fact the number of persons disfranchised in the South is very few and they are persons who were very conspicuous in the attempt to overthrow the Government. There may be some Irishmen among them. But the attempt to make people believe that the Irish in the South are disfranchised as a class is a very silly electioneering expedient. It was probably suggested by the Democratic National Committee.

Says the organ mournfully: "We may be defeated again by the unscrupulous use of money." Which is as much as to say that the probabilities are that large numbers of sturdy Democrats are for sale, as usual, and the Republicans may possibly buy them up.

For Grant and Peace

The following letter from General Schofield, at present Secretary of War, was sent to General Grant in May last and was but recently made public. It is quite safe to suppose that if this letter had been brought to the notice of Andrew Johnson Schofield would never have been nominated for the position he holds:

HEADQ'RS FIRST MILITARY DISTRICT,
RICHMOND, VA., May 25, 1868.
Gen. U. S. Grant, Washington, D. C.

DEAR GENERAL: I hope you will not think it out of place for me to tender you my most hearty congratulations upon the action of the Chicago Convention. The perfect unanimity and great enthusiasm of your nomination were certainly highly gratifying as being a formal ratification of the popular endorsements of your public record which have heretofore been made throughout the country. But your unanimous nomination was long predetermined and was but the fulfilment of universal expectation. On the other hand when the convention met there was ground for apprehension that its action in other respects might not be so wise. But that apprehension has at least in a great degree been dispelled. The judicious selection of Mr. Colfax as second on the ticket and the general practical wisdom displayed in framing the platform, that is, in laying down practical rules of action based upon the necessities of the country instead of abstract political theories have greatly increased the probabilities of success and at the same time made that success the more to be desired. I have always believed that the Union could be fully restored only by the men who put down the rebellion, while I have not been without serious apprehension that by forcing upon the country extreme Radical theories the stability of the Government might be endangered. Great reforms require time for their full development—time in which theories may be analyzed, and that which is sound and of practical utility separated from the unsound and chimerical. Wisdom and moderation in Congress will now give the country restoration and Peace. Your election to the Presidency will be the end of our political troubles as your accession to the command in chief of the army was the end of the late Southern rebellion.

Very respectfully, your obedient servant,
J. M. SCHOFIELD,
Brevet Major General.

Another distinguished Union soldier, General Edward McCook of Ohio, at present United States minister to the Sandwich Islands, writes as follows to Senator Conness:

The news of the Democratic nominations has arrived, and I think they are radically weak—the very weakest combination that could have been made; the War Democrats won't vote for Seymour because he was a Copperhead, and the Copperheads won't vote for Blair, because he wore a blue instead of a gray uniform. Much to my disgust I saw that a cousin of mine, George W. McCook, had proposed the name of Seymour to the convention as "the man who would drive the Radical cabal at Washington from power," &c. I am sorry I cannot be at home this fall on George's account; he is somewhat powerful on the stump in Ohio, and I would like to follow him around and neutralize the effect of his rhetoric by stating the fact that he is the only one of all his name who supports Seymour and Blair, and the only male member of his family who wasn't in the Union army during the war. I should think the spirits of his dead father and brothers, who laid down their lives in defence of the Union, would haunt him with continual reproaches. I think this is a pretty fair illustration of the way things will go at the election; the soldiers will vote as they shot—against the rebels, and Copperheads will be Democrats still, as they always have been.

That account of the Democratic meeting at Union Hall on Wednesday night, which was published in the "organ," was "a huge affair," if the meeting itself was very small persimmons. The "organ" prefaces its account with half a dozen immense head lines, such as, "Union Hall crowded with enthusiastic Democrats," "Hundreds turned away unable to gain admittance," etc. It is not necessary to tell the people of Portland anything about the dimensions of Union Hall and the number of persons it will contain, but for the information of readers elsewhere we will state that it is a room not exceeding twenty five feet by forty in size, and that it will accommodate probably 250 persons. At this big Democratic turn out not more than 200 were collected in the building and on the street. Grover spoke his piece to an audience not exceeding 150 persons. The hall was at no time full. When Shiel spoke at the same place on Monday night he had exactly 71 auditors. These are the "big meetings" which the "organ" is crowing over.

Not a Cheerful Prospect for Democrats.—The Republicans are now sure of Congressmen enough to give them a considerable majority. Of the sixty-four members of the Forty First Congress already elected, the Republicans have forty six, and the Democrats eighteen. As the same proportion will undoubtedly be maintained in the elections yet to be held, it is clear that the Republicans must have a great majority in the next House. They already have an overwhelming majority in the Senate. Now follows a point which Democrats will please make a note of. If Seymour and Blair should be elected, an event however, which nobody dreams of,—and make an attempt to carry out the revolutionary programme laid down in the New York platform and Blair's letter, a Republican House of Representatives would instantly bring forward articles of impeachment, and a Republican Senate would almost as quickly remove the revolutionists from office. Let Democrats look at the situation in any light they will, their prospects are not remarkably flattering.

Chase on Grant.—The New York Tribune of October 7th states that intimate friends of Chief Justice Chase say he speaks very freely in regard to the pending election. He thinks that Grant will carry all the States, with the exception of six or eight, and that after he becomes President the country will surely prosper. In his opinion Grant will make a prudent and honest officer, will assume no powers that do not belong to him, will call good and trustworthy men around him, and will, by his management of the affairs of the country, make a re-election in 1872 an easy matter. He will be the means of uniting the Republican party and keeping it on the offensive. Mr. Chase adds that the present political campaign clearly demonstrates the fact that the Democratic party of the North cannot remain united with the Democratic party of the South and hope for success. The leaders might agree but the masses never.

A Question Settled.—Frank Blair made a speech recently in Pittsburg, in which he said:

"The people of the South, the loyal men of the South, voted against their ordinances (of secession) at the very moment of time the Government of the United States were arming the conspirators of the South—the Knights of the Golden Circle and furnishing them with arms of the public arsenals, with which to put down loyal men of the South who stood up for the Government."

The Post, the Democratic organ of Pittsburg, refused to print this arraignment of Buchanan and the Democratic party. But we have it from Blair, the highest Democratic authority, that Buchanan's Administration was a guilty accomplice in the great rebellion. This ought to settle that question.

Subsided.—On Wednesday night at a late hour the members of the Rump conclave at Salem, feeling that they had been on exhibition long enough—

Folded their tents like Arabs
And as silently stole away—

having first passed a resolution to meet on the 4th of March next. We can only conjecture what their object was in resolving to hold an extra session. On the 4th of March, President Ulysses goes into the White House, and it may be that the Oregon Rump intends to revolt, "secesh" the State and enter into a Confederacy with Kentucky, the only irreclaimable Ku Klux State of the thirty seven.

The Herald continues to argue that those who attempted by force of arms to divide the Union and destroy the Government are "falsely called rebels." Just keep on advocating that doctrine. It is burying your party deeper than the doctrine of the Sadducees could scull it.

Gen. Grant's Policy.—The New York Herald, alluding to the speculations of some of the political journals as to Grant's policy when President, says that it has no misgivings on the subject. It expects a sound, pacific, conservative, economical and withal a progressive policy from him. "His character and his antecedents as a public man, military and civil, and his position, as generally recognized and accepted by the people, all justify that universal confidence which prevails in regard to his administration." The Herald also expresses its belief that his financial policy will look to reform and retrenchment in the collection of the revenues and to the resumption of specie payments, and that his foreign policy will "put the United States positively and authoritatively foremost among the leading powers of the world." The Herald sums up its estimate in these emphatic words:

As in the war the cool head, the solid good sense and remarkably practical mind of General Grant placed him alongside the greatest military geniuses of modern or ancient times, so in his civil administration of the affairs of the Union we expect the same solid qualities will prove him equal to the highest order of statesmanship. In a word, we expect in General Grant a first rate President, and from him domestic and foreign a first rate policy.

In the book entitled "The Rebel War Clerk's Diary," the following appears:

June 22, 1863.—To-day I saw the memorandum of Mr. Ould of the conversation held with Vallandigham, for file in the archives. He (Mr. Vallandigham) says if we could only hold out this year, that the peace party of the North would sweep the Lincoln dynasty out of existence. He seemed to have thought that our cause was sinking, and feared we would submit, which of course would be ruinous to this party. But he advises strongly against any invasion of Pennsylvania, for that would unite all parties at the North and strengthen Lincoln's hands so that he would be able to crush all opposition, and trample upon the constitutional rights of the people.

By the aid of music, bonfires, and an immense amount of "drumming" through the city, a few dozen persons were got together in a little room over a grocery on Wednesday night to hear the sexual misstatements expatiate on the "nigger." The next morning, the "organ" came out with a glowing account declaring that the meeting indicated a great victory to the Democracy, which would change Radicalism in Oregon and in the Union to death and destruction. The October Elections

[From the Chicago Tribune Oct. 14.]

The sun of Tuesday, October 13th, went down on the most fiercely contested elections in Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana that have ever been known in those States, and there can be scarcely a doubt that the Republicans have achieved a glorious victory in each. The great commonwealth of Pennsylvania in the largest vote ever polled in the State, has given a Republican majority of not less than 12,000. The Democrats have probably carried the city of Philadelphia by twelve hundred majority against twenty four hundred last year. The returns from the interior show decisive Republican gains. The result of the vote on Congressmen is not given with sufficient definiteness to show the aggregate loss and gain, but it is quite certain that the Republicans have carried the Legislature and thus secured a United States Senator in place of Buckalew (Democrat).

Ohio rolls up a Republican majority of nearly 20,000. The State will give from 30,000 to 40,000 majority for Grant in November.

Indiana has no doubt given a Republican majority, though somewhat reduced from the figures of 1866. The majority two years ago was 14,202. To overcome this vote would require an average Democratic gain of 140 in each county. The returns thus far received show alternate gains and losses with a small balance in favor of the Democracy, but not enough we think to offset the Republican margin of 1866. The Legislature is Republican, which secures the election of a Republican Senator in place of Hendricks.

Nebraska, the youngest of the States, gives a Republican majority of 2,000, against 145 at her last election. This will do for Nebraska.

The grand total of these elections may be summed up as follows: Grant and Colfax will carry every State that Lincoln carried in 1864, and will probably add New Jersey and Delaware to the Republican column. The Democracy will make no serious fight for the Presidency in the succeeding three weeks. All they can hope to gain will be here and there a Congressman or a local office. The great battle for liberty and law has been fought and won. The party which set out so bravely in July to trample the acts of Congress in the dust, to snatch from the loyal North the victories achieved in the war and to repudiate the public debt, has been pulverized in the first assault.

Robinson Crusoe's Island

A dispatch the other day in speaking of a tidal wave which was felt at the Island of Juan Fernandez remarked that such a phenomenon had not been seen since Robinson Crusoe lived there. The observation was probably intended for a joke by the operator, but it serves to remind us of a mistake which obtained for nearly a hundred and fifty years and which is very generally accepted even to this day. The legend runs that Defoe obtained the materials from which he built up that most charming and evergreen story Robinson Crusoe from the recital of the adventures of Alexander Selkirk, who having been put on shore at the Island of Juan Fernandez by his own request, lived their in complete solitude for four years. It is true that Defoe might have taken his idea from Selkirk's narrative, but it has been conclusively established that he did not, and the story of Robinson Crusoe bears testimony to the accuracy of the recent discovery. The fact is that Robinson Crusoe is founded on the adventures of a Spaniard named Peter Serrano, who was wrecked on an island in the Caribbean Sea not far from the mouth of the Orinoco river in the Sixteenth century, and lived there in solitude many years. An account of his adventures was given in Sir Paul Rycaut's translation of Garcilasso's Commentaries of Peru which was published a few years before Defoe wrote Robinson Crusoe, and which being a popular book, he was sure to have read. This is completely borne out by the original story, and by the body of the story itself. The original title, which is abridged in all modern editions, states that the work contains "The life and strange surprising adventures of Robinson Crusoe of York, mariner, who lived eight and twenty years all alone in an uninhabited island on the coast of America near the mouth of the great river Oroonoque, having been cast ashore by shipwreck," etc. In the early part of the narrative we find him placing his island in latitude 9 deg 22 min. North, which would bring him near the mouth of the Orinoco, that river's delta extending from 8 deg 40 min. to 10 deg North. Further on he states that he surmised the island to be "near the Spanish Americas, or near the savage coast between the Spanish country and the Brazils," and subsequently he distinctly lays down its position by stating that he found "a current he had noticed was occasioned by the great draft and reflux of the mighty river Oroonoko, in the mouth or gulf of which river, as I found afterwards, our island lay, and that the land to the west and northwest was the great island of Trinidad on the north point of the mouth of the river." It is tolerably clear from this that the island of Juan Fernandez, which lies in latitude 33 deg. 45 min. South, has no claims to the title of Crusoe's Island which it has held so long and that the real Crusoe's Island is on the other side of the continent altogether.—N. Y. Times.

The Russian Empire.—The Statistical Central Committee of the Russian Ministry of the Interior has recently published the official results of the latest census of the European part of the empire, which was completed in the year 1865. We give below a few figures relative to the area and population of the giant empire, which indicate its present condition, its rapid growth, and its rank among the nations of the earth. These figures are well worth attentive consideration.

We begin with a few remarks on the area of European Russia. The total area of European Russia is 1,853,732 square miles; to this must be added the former kingdom of Poland, with 46,985, and the Grand duchy of Finland, with 145,501 square miles. In this calculation the lakes are not counted. Altogether European Russia contains, therefore, 2,027,224 square miles. The greater proportion of this is fertile land, capable of supporting a dense population. European Russia alone, therefore, would be an immense empire. It exceeds in extent the 37 States of our Union, which together have about 1,892,181 square miles, while the whole area of this Union inclusive of the Territories, would exceed it by about 786,641 square miles.

But European Russia is only the smaller portion of the empire. In Asia, Russia owned in 1863 5,740,390 square miles, that is, a tract of land double the size of the United States, and since then great progress has been made in the conquest of Independent Tartary. Already a Russian government of Turkistan has been organized, and all the khanates which have not yet been incorporated with the empire have become wholly dependent upon it. Their entire annexation is generally regarded as being now only the question of a few years. This country, according to the most trustworthy estimates, contains over 647,820 square miles, and exceeds by about 127,554 square miles the American possessions of Russia, which have been sold to the United States. Altogether Russia may be said to count at the present day about 8,078,054 English square miles, or nearly three times the extent of the United States.

Where the Precious Metals Go.—An article in the Revue des Deux Mondes by M. Victor Bonnet, thus refers to the condition of financial affairs incidentally in this country:

The billion of francs idle in the Bank of France rests there unemployed because capitalists are governed by a single sentiment, that of fear. This billion of the bank of France is caused first, by a singular political inquietude which paralyzes commercial affairs in France and Europe, then the high tariffs of the United States which close to us a most important outlet, and finally, the "forced paper currency" of bank notes or paper money which exists in several States in America and Europe, and creates a reflux towards us of all the precious metals. It is for us and the English that the miners of California, Australia and Central America labor. The countries which have a forced paper currency cannot receive the precious metals of America. Not only do they not receive them, but their own circulation goes abroad and reaches us. The gold which is produced in the Ural Mountains only stops at St. Petersburg, and does not remain there. It seeks the countries where it sojourns. The same in Austria, that unfortunate country, where, during the twenty years it has been given up to a paper currency, none of the precious metals are circulated as money. The circulation of paper money there has descended as low even, as a florin. As to Italy, we can see for ourselves, by the circulation in France of silver and gold pieces with the image of Victor Emanuel, that we serve also as an outlet for her money. The gold of the California mines scarcely makes port in New York, and from thence arrives here directly. England and France are alone the outlets and resting places of the gold product of the world. The load of specie with which the Banks of England and France are burdened, arises simply from the influence of forced paper currency. In countries where paper money rules, specie disappears. Specie goes abroad, because it has not its real value in circulation, because it is in concurrence with a money symbol which, in replacing it, depreciates it. It goes abroad also, because such countries are always debtors to foreign nations and have constant remittances to make to them.

Five young ladies in Salem, Illinois, were offered $100 if they would saw a load of wood twice in two in one day. They took that offer, went at it like men and got through triumphantly, though a little sore.

IT IS AN INVARIABLE LAW OF NATURE that every human being shall do those acts which he thinks will secure good to him and that he shall avoid those acts which may occasion a loss to him or the family he is a member of. In conformity with that law it is the duty of every person to purchase of Kohn & Fishel all the goods they may be in need of. The fair sex whose family are always most happy to comply with all things beneficial to themselves and families should not fail to examine the fine and extensive stock of Kohn & Fishel, and they will confess their stock of Dry Goods to be of superior quality sold at figures below their rates. Men more bold and less calculating than our fair ladies should be reminded that Kohn & Fishel, indeed are the leaders of fashion, the lowest in price, and no man should wear clothes unless they are purchased at Kohn & Fishel's, No. 91 Front street.

She has been [illegible] the passage from San Fra[illegible].....The health of the cit[illegible] very good. No diseases are prevailing.

Examination Waived.—A large crowd of [illegible] gathered at the Recorder's Court [illegible] the preliminary examination of Mr. [illegible] between nine and ten o'clock the [illegible] into court in charge of an officer. The court stated tha[illegible] the accused had already been arraigned, and that he wa[illegible] now required to plead to the [illegible]tion. Mr. Logan[illegible] who appeared for the defense, stated in [illegible] the defendant was a stranger in the city, and if upo[illegible] examination bonds were allowed, he would [illegible] unable to give such as would be required, [illegible] he de[illegible] to enter a plea of not guilty and waive an exa[illegible] until the sitting of the grand jury." The plea o[illegible] not guilty was therefore entered and the [illegible] to the county jail. The State [illegible] by [illegible] Page & Thayer, and [illegible] seven or eight witnesses for the pro[illegible] were [illegible] ordered to give a recognizance in the sum of $100 each fo[illegible] their appearance in the Circuit Court.

Some Squash.—"There is a 'leetle' [illegible] at Foster [illegible] raised by Mr. D[illegible] two fee[illegible] long and measuring four feet [illegible] in cir[illegible] cumference. Squash that, will you!"—[illegible]

It can be done. Mr. Reveille, for we [illegible] one a[illegible] the store of Mr. O'Connor of this city, [illegible] which [illegible] fully *six feet and three inches in circum*ference, and weighs one hundred and twenty pounds. We guess [illegible] will "squash" your squash badly. It was [illegible] by Mr. Haleti, three miles below the mouth of the [illegible] and is perhaps the largest production of the kind in th[illegible] State. At least we never saw one of such a size [illegible]

Who was Hurt.—Mr. W. L. Hill, Esq., while returning home on horseback last night after dark, met wit[illegible] quite an accident. The animal he was ri[illegible] not being shod, slipped down in turning a corner, and [illegible] his leg bruised his ankle considerably and [illegible] his knee[illegible]—Commercial.

Which of the two, "Mr. W. L. Hill, Esq.," or the animal which "falling on his leg [illegible] considerably and strained his knee?"

Arrived.—The bark Live Yankee from San Fr[illegible] arrived night before last. She is now di[illegible] a car[illegible] go of assorted merchandise at Ab[illegible] wharf, foo[illegible] of Yamhill street. The George S. Wright, from Victoria[illegible] arrived at 3 o'clock yesterday morning. She [illegible] her freight list, which will be found [illegible] where.

Personal.—A private note from Rev. G. H. Atki[illegible] to a gentleman in this city, gives the news that this [illegible] is now probably at [illegible] Any letters [illegible] to him at the Bible House, Astor Place, New York, care of Dr. Dodger, No. 11," will [illegible] him safely.

Success.—The play of the "Ticket of Leave Man" [illegible] meets with great success. We noticed many eyes suf[illegible] fused with tears last night at the very [illegible] in this play. Every one should go and see it.

Sociable.—The Ladies of the First Congregational Church will give a Sociable this evening (Friday) at the residence of J. L. Atkinson, corner of Third and Clay streets.

The Carrie.—The regular trip of the Carrie, to Oregon City was not made yesterday. The detention was ca[illegible] by the necessity of repairs to her boiler.

Rising.—The Unionist of yesterday reports the river as having risen six inches at Salem. This being so, we may expect but little farther difficulty in navigating the Willamette hereafter.

County Court.—The County Court of Multnomah county will hold a regular monthly term beginning next Monday [illegible]

U. S. District Court.—This court at its last sitting adjourned until Saturday (to morrow) Oct. 31st.

Jubilee Concert.—There will be a Jubilee Concert Friday evening, Oct. 30th, by the Lutheran Sabbath School of this city. Friday being the last day of the Jubilee the Lutherans propose to celebrate it by a reli[illegible] concert. There will be addresses by the various pastors of the city churches and singing by the Sunday School scholars. All are invited to attend. Something entertaining may be expected.

By Eye and Lenses Shortly.—Mr. G. Frankel, the [illegible] Optician of San Francisco, will be in the Dalles until Saturday next, will go then to Umatilla where he will stay two days and will go then to Walla Walla where he will remain five days, for the purpose of supplying those that require assistance to their sight with his celebrated Russian Pebble Spectacles and Eye Glasses, which not only gives perfect vision but will preserve the sight. Mr. F. has also a [illegible] of all styles of Opera, Field and Marine [illegible], Medical Compound Microscopes and Optical Instruments of all descriptions.

GRAIN.—Since the [illegible] the Willamette river [illegible] the time when the great surplus of grain in the counties of the valley should begin to pour into our market [illegible] is much speculation as to the probable [illegible] market for the vast product of the [illegible] It is [illegible] at least 4,000,000 bushels of wheat [illegible] raised in Oregon during the past year than is necessary [illegible] filled in the way [illegible] All we [illegible] amount that will be required for seed [illegible] there will yet remain [illegible] bushels which [illegible] on hand for exportation. The question in which [illegible] is interested is [illegible] pay a fair price for this? [illegible] all the information we can gather from all parts [illegible] the production of breadstuffs the last season [illegible] for several years. [illegible] received papers we get details [illegible] in England. Owing [illegible] commenced much earlier [illegible] The wheat crop turned out much better than was expected, the abnormal yields on the heavy lands more than [illegible] the deficiency on light gravelly soils. The spring crops are, however, unsatisfactory, especially barley, [illegible] peas and beans. Other European [illegible] have generally produced equally well, and it is doubtless true that a surplus will be found in all the great wheat growing countries. The great cost of shipping and high price of labor on the Pacific coast being taken into consideration precludes the idea of California and Oregon [illegible] under the present circumstances, to compete with those countries which find a market much nearer home, and where labor is much cheaper. Some farmers in Oregon heretofore have refused to sell when wheat was at 75 to 80 cents per bushel, and have made money by their foresight, as we believe there has been a rise almost every year when it advanced to a [illegible] the slowness in throwing the crop of 1868 [illegible] the market is attributable to the same [illegible] But it seems to us that there is a great deal less probability of a rise of this kind during the present year than there was at such time during the past. Whatever may be the [illegible] accruing to Oregon by the direct ship[illegible] prise, and we doubt not they will be great, [illegible] yet be a reasonable supposition that prices for grain in other countries will not be such as will leave much of a margin for the producers on this coast. Of [illegible] there is a large surplus in the country which [illegible] market or prove a loss to the farmers of Oregon. [illegible] that the market seems more favorable for [illegible] for wheat, and the demand is constantly increasing, so that he who has raised wheat enough for [illegible] and laid out his extra land for oats will likely [illegible] gainer this year.

[illegible] ITEMS.—The Oriflamme, from San Francisco, will probably arrive to-night or to-morrow. The late [illegible] put a stop to street improvements in many [illegible] this city. The Hallie C. Besse, the first vessel [illegible] shipping line from New York to Portland, has been about six months on the passage, and [illegible] arrive very soon. Joseph Nix, [illegible] insane man, was taken to the Asylum [illegible] Portland on Wednesday afternoon last. [illegible] running daily between this place and Oregon City. The U. S. ambulance wagons were brought here [illegible] Yankee, which arrived night before last from [illegible] John Doe, who says he lives [illegible] miles came to town day before yesterday, [illegible] "tangle foot," and went to sleep on the [illegible] Recorder, yesterday, sent him to jail [illegible] get sober. Henry Mulkey was taken [illegible] yesterday by Marshal Lappeus [illegible] order from Hon. P. A. Marquam, County [illegible] The brig Brewster is outside the bar at the [illegible] of the Columbia. She has been several weeks in [illegible] from San Francisco. The health of the city [illegible] good. No diseases are prevailing.

[illegible] WAIVED.—A large crowd of spectators [illegible] the Recorder's Court yesterday morning to [illegible] the preliminary examination of Mr. Bertrand. [illegible] and ten o'clock the prisoner was brought [illegible] in charge of an officer. The court stated that [illegible] had already been arraigned, and that he was [illegible] to plead to the accusation. Mr. Logan, [illegible] for the defense, stated in substance that [illegible] was a stranger in the city, and if [illegible] bonds were allowed, he would probably be [illegible] such as would be required, hence he desired [illegible] a plea of not guilty and waive an examination [illegible] the sitting of the grand jury. The plea of [illegible] was therefore entered and the accused remanded [illegible] jail. The State appeared by Messrs. [illegible] & Thayer, and [illegible]. Some several [illegible] for the prosecution were called and [illegible] a recognizance in the sum of $100 each for [illegible] in the Circuit Court.

[illegible]—"There is a 'leetle' squash at Prater & [illegible] raised by Mr. Drake of Applegate, two feet [illegible] ring four feet and eleven inches in [illegible] Squash that, will you?"—Reveille.

[illegible], Mr. Reveille, for we measured one at [illegible] Mr. O'Connor of this city, yesterday, which [illegible] feet and three inches in circumference and [illegible] and twenty pounds. We guess it [illegible] your squash badly. It was raised by Mr. [illegible] miles below the mouth of the Willamette [illegible] the largest production of the kind in the [illegible] we never saw one of such a size before.

[illegible] HURT.—Mr. W. L. Hill, Esq., while returning [illegible] last night after dark, met with [illegible] The animal he was riding not being [illegible] down in turning a corner, and falling on his [illegible] considerably and strained his knee. [illegible] the two, "Mr. W. L. Hill, Esq.," or the [illegible] falling on his leg bruised his ankle consid[illegible] his knee?

The bark Live Yankee from San Francisco, [illegible] before last. She is now discharging a car[illegible] merchandise at Abernethy's wharf, foot [illegible] street. The George S. Wright, from Victoria, [illegible] o'clock yesterday morning. She brought a [illegible] list, which will be found elsewhere.

A private note from Rev. G. H. Atkinson, [illegible] in this city, gives the news that this [illegible] probably at Chicago. Any letters addressed [illegible] "Bible Home, Astor Place, New York, care [illegible], No. 11," will reach him safely.

[illegible]—The play of the "Ticket of Leave Man" [illegible] great success. We noticed many eyes suf[illegible] tears last night at the very affecting incidents. Every one should go and see it.

[illegible].—The regular trip of the Carrie to Oregon [illegible] made yesterday. The detention was caused [illegible] of repairs to her boiler.

[illegible]—The Unionist of yesterday reports the river [illegible] six inches at Salem. This being so, we [illegible] but little farther difficulty in navigating the [illegible] hereafter.

[illegible] COURT.—The County Court of Multnomah county [illegible] monthly term beginning next Monday.

[illegible] COURT.—This court at its last sitting ad[illegible] Saturday (to-morrow) Oct. 31st.

[illegible] CONCERT.—There will be a Jubilee Concert [illegible] Oct. 30th, by the Lutheran Sabbath [illegible] this city. Friday being the last day of the [illegible] Lutherans propose to celebrate it by a [illegible] There will be [illegible] the city churches and singing by the Sunday [illegible] All are invited to attend. Something [illegible] may be expected.

[illegible] AND [illegible]—Mr. G. Frankel, the [illegible] scientific Optician of San Francisco, will be [illegible] until Saturday next, will go then to [illegible] days and will go thence [illegible] where he will remain five days, for the purpose of [illegible] those that require assistance [illegible] the celebrated Russian Pebble Spectacles and [illegible] which not only gives perfect vision but will [illegible] the sight. NOTICE

To all Persons having Demands on the United States or on any State

BOUNTY LAND GRANTED TO ALL PERSONS serving in any War in which the United States has been engaged to 3d March 1855. Teamsters are entitled who served in the Mexican War.

PRIZE MONEY paid all persons attached to vessels or squadrons which captured Prizes during the late War. The undersigned has a PRIZE LIST.

Several SPOLIATION CLAIMS were referred, last Session of Congress, to the Committee on Claims in the Senate, with prospects of payment. More such are desired by the undersigned.

PENSIONS are increased under recent Act of Congress (as governed by wound or disability) to $15, $20 and $25 per month and paid (in case of death of soldier to mother, father, brother or sister—the arrears back to time of discharge or death of soldier, to be paid by Pension Agent here and not by Third Auditor as formerly. Many persons who are now receiving such aid, are not aware that they are entitled in many cases to a large amount of back pension. Heirs (of deceased soldiers entitled to a pension) had better apply to the undersigned, who gives gratuitous information to all desiring it.

BOUNTIES obtained when Discharge is lost, as well as with the discharge.

The Oregon, Washington and California Indian War Debts are being paid off gradually. Hundreds of these claims are yet in circulation, which have been suspended for want of additional evidence, or abandoned for want of perseverance to urge them to payment. The undersigned has collected many claims which have been abandoned by agents and owners, and he therefore requests all persons having such demands on the government, or on any State, to give him a call.

PATENTS on Improvements and on inventions obtained in the shortest time possible.

CHARTRES COFFEE!

Manufactory Established in June, 1851.

STEAM POWER, NOS. 625 AND 627 FRONT ST.

HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities. CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts.

The undersigned, who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here, and in the markets of the Interior a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless, buyers should be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice.

Democratic Mismanagement

Beginning with the Tammany Hall Convention, the Presidential campaign on the part of the managers, leaders and organs of the Democracy has been a budget of blunders. The Convention was offered a fair field for a glorious victory over the Radicals in the nomination of Chief Justice Chase. But by [illegible] as a disgusted Western [illegible] very pointedly expressed it, the Chase movement was extinguished, Pendleton was slipped away and Seymour turned up the little joker. With the ink hardly dried of his printed speech against Pendleton he accepted the Pendleton platform with Wade Hampton's revolutionary reconstruction amendment, and thus in [illegible] [illegible] himself, the blundering Seymour found himself fighting the lost cause of 1864 over again against the champion of the Union war party and the conqueror of the rebellion.

From this departure of the Tammany Convention the popular reactionary movement of 1867 against the Radicals, was instantly stopped, and a new reaction commenced in favor of the Republican party and General Grant on the great issues of the war. To make the matter worse for Seymour, the managers, leaders and organs of the Democracy undertook to strengthen their desperate cause by personal abuse of General Grant, and by the most silly and preposterous attempts to prove Grant an ignoramus, destitute alike of any of the qualities of a statesman and of any merit as a soldier. Indeed they would have it that he was only a remorseless butcher and a blunderer in the war, and only a cunning trickster in the Cabinet. Holding up the rebel General Lee as the model of military leaders, they have still contended that the conqueror of Lee blundered along from the Wilderness to Appomattox Court House. Of course this sort of party warfare rapidly rallied "the Boys in Blue," and the loyal people of the war standing behind them, around the banner of Grant, as the same campaign against General Jackson rallied the honest masses of the people around him forty years ago.

In the next place, the constellation of the political and military leaders of the rebellion who figured so largely in the Tammany Convention, were permitted from the outset to proclaim that in the election of Seymour "their lost cause" would be regained, and accepting this appeal from Appomattox Court House to the Tammany Convention, the Union [illegible] of the war are all in line again and are resolved to re-affirm, under Grant, the settlement of Lee's surrender.

It is "passing strange" that in this campaign our Democratic leaders, managers and organs appear to have forgotten, not only the lessons of the war, as given in the general run of the elections since 1860, but the instructions of all our great elections of the last forty years. Their budget of blunders embraces the blunders of the Adams party of 1828, the blunders of Van Buren party of 1840, of the Cass party of 1847, the blunders of poor Pierce and Buchanan, the blunders of the Southern oligarchy at Charleston in 1860, and of the Northern wing of the party at Chicago in 1864, all rolled together. With such a load upon his back, what hope is there for Seymour, nominated to fight over again the last and most disastrous campaign of McClellan? Echo answers, none.—[N. Y. Herald, September 14th.

The Jews and General Grant

The following is the concluding portion of a speech delivered lately by Noah Green, a leading Israelite of Keokuk, Iowa:

Now on what side do we stand? Shall we array ourselves on the side of equal justice, of peace and order, or on the side of war and anarchy? It is not a questions of persons merely—Grant and Seymour—it is a question of opposite ideas and their necessary consequences. I address myself to the intelligent patriotic Jews, to whom this country and the cause of justice and liberty are dearer than the gratification of their indignation, however just. I do not ask them to love Grant, but to love their race, to vote for Grant not for his sake, but for the triumph of the idea of justice. For my part, if a man had spit into my face, [illegible] had [illegible] me, if I after[illegible] [illegible] for him could [illegible] liberty and [illegible], I would do it. For what am I, [illegible] General [illegible], what are all of us? We are but [illegible] of the moment, soon passing away. But the consequences of our actions do not pass away, they will extend to future generations, to curse or to bless them. Eighteen hundred years ago some leading aristocratic Jews committed a blunder, and though they have been mouldering these eighteen hundred years—though their bodies have been reduced to atoms—the consequences of their blunder still last, and I have suffered for it, and thousands of Jews are still suffering for it, because it has given to others a pretext for persecuting us. I do not know whether the same reasons will carry with others the weight as they do with me. But one thing I do know, and that is that if the Jews as a mass will join in this struggle for the elements of [illegible], and anarchy, the future historian will record that the descendants of [illegible] that was once enslaved—nay, [illegible] once so despised that men [illegible] to buy them as slaves when they [illegible] the descendants of the same race that suffered a persecution for nearly two thousand years; that were often driven by the [illegible] and tens of thousands to the synagogues and buried there alive with their wives and children; when, in the course of time they had [illegible] their rights and they are sitting as judges, and the question was put before them, "Shall equal and exact justice be done to all men?" they answered "No"—having come to a country that treated them most generously, they assisted by their votes to bring upon the same country the horrors, carnage, and destruction of civil war, for the purpose of depriving another oppressed race of the only means by which it could defend its right to life, liberty, and to the pursuit of happiness.

THE "BLOATED BONDHOLDERS."—Mr. James A. Briggs has made a careful examination of the subject, with a view to ascertain how much of the Government bonded debt is held by the laborers, mechanics, the needle women and orphans of the country. He finds that in Maine, Massachusetts, Connecticut and New York, the savings banks alone hold $100,000,000 of these securities. One bank in New York city, on the 1st of last January, had 54,363 accounts. Of this number, 35,512 had deposited not more than $100 each. Mr Briggs adds: "Four men in New York city who own $100,000,000 of property do not hold as large an amount of United States securities as the 'Institution for the Savings of Merchants' Clerks,' which holds $352,568." They are the "bloated bondholders" the Democratic demagogues are denouncing. These are the people they now want to cheat out of their interest preliminary to repudiating the principal.

The "headless rooster" humbug has been exploded, but the Democrats are trying to impose a similar trick upon a credulous public by pretending that the spirit of the rebellion, that old democratic "fighting cock" which has given the country so much trouble, is beheaded. The people, however, are not to be deceived by the well contrived sham which they have on exhibition. They see evidence of rebellious life and activity, and although the Democrats may point to the declarations of the whole tribe of White Sulphur Springs chickens that the head is off, and a "dead issue," they will not believe it as long as they can see the animal stalking about in the proud and characteristic style which distinguishes it. "Headless roosters" have had their day.

THE COLORS THEY CARRIED.—The New Orleans Republicans has the following item, which is sufficiently significant:

The Blair Guards on Friday, and the Seymour Guides on Saturday, paraded through the streets carrying the old Confederate colors—the three bars, red, white and red—which attracted general attention, and excited emotions of approval or condemnation, according to the political bias of the spectator.

The ladies of Sturgis, Michigan, excited by the fact that the school law in that State says "persons" instead of "free white male citizens," or any such nonsense, are "organizing, and intend running school affairs on their own hook after this." Good for them! We know they will pay more attention to them than the men who are chiefly interested [illegible] the time taxes are to be levied. Put [illegible] through, ladies. It is your turn now.

Mr. Zachariah Wilson, Portland, Oregon, writes:

It requires an article of real merit and intrinsic value to sustain itself during the stormy ordeal of public experiments. Murray's Improved Magic Oil has stood the test of time and has not been found wanting. The astonishing efficacy that I experienced—its curing me of Chronic Rheumatism and Lumbago of long standing, entitles Dr. Murray's Premium Lung and Liver Balsam and Improved Magic Oil to a high rank in the list of remedies for Rheumatism, Lumbago, Earache, Distressing Pains, etc.

John English of Howell Prairie, Marion county, Oregon, writes:

I was taken with a severe attack of Rheumatism in my knee joints and extremities, accompanied with a severe cough for two months, so that I had to use crutches, meanwhile trying all remedies in common use. Your Magic Oil and Balsam gave me instant relief and I was able to walk in four days without crutches. I have not felt any rheumatism since. I have seen your family medicines used with excellent success. I have no hesitancy in saying it is the best preparation for family use ever tried for those complaints. I am now on my way to South America after residing in Oregon twenty years. I must now have two dozens Balsam and two dozens of your Magic Oil, dollar bottles, as I am sure they are the best remedies in Oregon, and I would not be without them in my house, and when this package of medicine is exhausted I will send to your office in Portland for a fresh supply. SOOTHING AND BRACING.—There is no preparation in existence which has such a soothing effect in cases of nervous excitement as DR. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. Although the fame of this renowned invigorant rests mainly on its astonishing cures of Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint and intestinal disorders, it is equally efficacious in nervous complaints. Thousands of ladies resort to it as a remedy for hysteria, fluttering of the heart, nervous headache, vertigo, general debility and all the peculiar disturbances and derangements to which their sex are subject. It cheers and lightens the depressed mental powers as well as strengthens the body, and its use is never followed by any unpleasant reaction. Sold by all Druggists and dealers everywhere.

TO THE ENTERPRISING
Farmers of Oregon!
GASTONS'S X-L-SIOR
BROAD-CAST GRAIN-SOWER.

THIS VALUABLE LABOR-SAVING MACHINE which has already been adopted in nearly every Agricultural county in the State of California and in every county where it has been presented, has been brought to Portland by who holds the exclusive right to the same for the State of Oregon, and is now ready to accommodate the farmers of this State with machines, and to sell county rights to manufacture the same.

This machine saves the entire cost and labor of sowing a field excepting the cost of a machine—the same team being used for sowing and harrowing, as is used for harrowing alone, the farmer or his boy riding and driving his team, instead of walking and carrying his heavy sack, and then walking and dragging his grain in.

The inventor of this valuable aid to farmers is a man of large experience in seeding machines, and has happily succeeded in this invention, in producing a machine which, while it carries the farmer as if on a sulky, sows wheat, barley, oats and peas with greater regularity than the same can be sown by hand; and at the same time the harrow attached to it, immediately behind, covers the grain and the labor is done. Any intelligent farmer who has ever carried a sack and sowed grain will readily see that the X-L-SIOR Grain Sower will save its entire cost in labor alone—to say nothing of its saving in seed. In sowing comparatively but few acres and we have placed an improper estimate upon the enterprise of our Oregon farmers if this machine is not generally adopted in this State as it has already been in California, and where the farmers write to the inventor respecting it after this manner:

LINCOLN, (Placer Co.) Sept 5 '68.
MR. H. A. GASTON—Dear Sir: I have two [illegible] machines (X-L-SIOR) which I challenge the State to beat for sowing grain. I have not as many fingers in the shaft as you directed, but I do not want my machines to sow any better than they do. I have sowed and [illegible] them perfectly.
T. C. TURINGTON.

By addressing or calling upon Mr. Brusie at C. Hopkins', corner of Front and Morrison streets, in this city, machines or County Rights to manufacture and sell the machines can be purchased at reasonable rates.

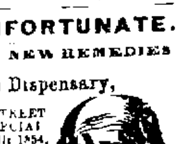
TO THE UNFORTUNATE.
NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES
Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,



616 KEARNEY STREET NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

Horrible Disease.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are at fleeting out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences or from virus absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation they can do suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends attend to this, as who are suffering with any of these horrid life destroying maladies, see that they are cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doct. Gibbon, a physician who has made private disease his especial study for years and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, as to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing with unerring certainty the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combated by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and every eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them, nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use, for Ten Dollars, sent in registered letter or through Wells, Fargo & Co.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders, who with bogus sworn certificates impose the unwary. Some of the self styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tradesmen and became too lazy to work at their trades. Some are tinsmiths, shoemakers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers, etc. Look over the San Francisco Directory and you will not find their Medical Institutes in it, but you will find their former occupation in it. Look at the Directory for 1862 and 1863. The only way to avoid imposition is to make enquiry—it will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets, for, as advertising physicians, in eight cases out of ten, are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr. Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles, certificates, pretended patient's letters, etc. Dr. Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he professes to cure.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 616 Kearney street, corner Commercial, San Francisco. Post Office Box 251. REMEMBER THE BOX 251 ON THE LETTER. Consultations FREE.

Correspondents will please inform DR. GIBBON that they read his advertisement in the Daily Oregonian.
